

SCOTTISH SOCIETY OF GASTROENTEROLOGY

SCOTTISH SOCIETY OF GASTROENTEROLOGY
Winter Meeting 2018
16 November 2018
Doubletree by Hilton Dunblane Hydro Hotel

Host: Professor Ali S Taha – University Hospital Crosshouse, Kilmarnock

Time	Topic	Speaker
08:30 – 09:00	Registration and coffee
09:00 – 09:05	Opening and Welcoming Comments	Professor Ali S Taha Consultant Physician and Gastroenterologist University Hospital Crosshouse, Kilmarnock
Session 1 – Functional GI and Upper GI
Chair: Professor Ali S Taha, University Hospital Crosshouse, Kilmarnock
09:05 – 09:35	Keynote Speaker: UGI Bleeding Care Units: Back to the Future	Dr Perminder Phull Consultant Gastroenterologist & Clinical Lead for Endoscopy, Aberdeen Royal Infirmary
09:35 – 10:05	Free Papers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Antithrombotic vs. Ulcer Effects in Non-Variceal Bleeding in Users of Antithrombotic Drugs 2. Outcomes from an ambulatory care protocol for managing low-risk patients with non-variceal upper GI bleeding 	Caroline McClosky Alexandra Thompson
Session 2 – GI and Liver Oncology
Chair: Dr Chris Gillen, University Hospital Ayr, Ayr
10:05 – 10:35	Keynote Speaker: Immunotherapy of GI Cancers: Opportunities and Challenges	Professor Jeff Evans Professor of Translational Cancer Research and Honorary Consultant in Medical Oncology, University of Glasgow
10:35 – 11:05	Free Papers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Dysplastic Colonic Polyps and the Use of Aspirin and Non-steroidal Anti-inflammatory Drugs – Lessons from Bowel Cancer Screening Programme 2. Trends in incidence of Hepatocellular Carcinoma in Scotland 2001-2015 	Professor Ali S Taha T M Drake
11:05 – 11:30	Coffee and pharmaceutical exhibition

Session 3 Liver
Chair: Professor John Dillon, Ninewells Hospital, Dundee
11:30 – 12:00	Keynote Speaker: Liver Disease in Pregnancy: Diagnosis & Management	Dr Ewan Forrest Consultant Hepatologist Glasgow Royal Infirmary
12:00 – 12:30	Free Papers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Increasing Access to Treatment for Vulnerable, High-Risk Patients by Utilising Needle and Syringe Programme Services in Tayside – the ADVANCE HCV study 2. Autologous Macrophage Therapy for Liver Cirrhosis (MATCH): A first-in-human, phase 1, single-arm, dose-escalation trial 	Lewis Beer Francesca Moroni
12:30 – 12:45	Poster viewing and pharmaceutical exhibition
12:30 – 13:30	Lunch 12:30 – 12:50 SSG Business Meeting
Session 4 – Inflammatory Bowel Disease
Chair: Dr John Morris, Royal Infirmary, Glasgow
13:30 – 14:00	Keynote Speaker: Cancer Surveillance in IBD in 2018: How and When	Dr Ian Arnott Consultant Gastroenterologist Western General Hospital, Edinburgh
14:00 – 14:30	Free Papers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the incidence of IBD in patients presenting with diarrhoea and equivocal faecal calprotectin results (100-200µg/g): a retrospective audit 2. Retrospective Study of Patients with Microscopic Colitis 	Ruiridh Nicoll Ruridh Allen
14:30 – 15:00	Coffee and pharmaceutical exhibition
Session 5 – Endoscopy & Service Development
Chair: Professor Ali S Taha, University Hospital Crosshouse, Kilmarnock
15:00 – 15:30	Keynote Speaker: Endoscopic US in 2018 and beyond: will it still be needed?	Dr Ian Penman Consultant Gastroenterologist Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh
15:30 – 16:00	Free Papers <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Thinking outside the oesophagus. An unusual case of variceal duodenal bleeding with subsequent management 2. Poor quality of capsule endoscopy images has a significant negative effect on the diagnosis of small bowel malignancy 	James Doyle Diana E. Yung
16:00 – 16:30	Keynote Speaker: The 2.00 am phone call in General Gastroenterology and Hepatology	Dr Elaine Henry Consultant Gastroenterologist Ninewells Hospital, Dundee
16:30 – 16:40	Ann Ferguson (Best Oral) and Derek Gillen (Best Poster) prize award and closing remarks
16:40	Close

CPD accreditation will be applied for in relation to this meeting.